What Is Going On Tonight.

Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association meets in St. Joseph's hall, Jackson street.

Obsequies, No. 14, 190. O. F. meets at 807 Main street.

A pretty church wedding was held on Wednesday evening when at 7 o'clock Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, united in marriage, Charles F. Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Everett of this city, and Miss Marjorie Russell, daughter of Mr. Eugene Allen Tracy of Southern Pines, Va. The bride was escorted by her brother, Kenneth Harrold of Bridgeport, and his assistants, George Olney of Manchester, Albert Dwyer of Manchester, Howard Bowen of Manchester, N. H. Russell, Chappell and Lester Blush of Willimantic. They were followed by Mrs. C. H. Evans of Hudson, N. Y., and Miss Natalie Collier of Brooklyn, N. Y., the bride's attendants, who were followed by Mrs. Florence Everett Tracy, matron of honor, and the brother of the groom, with two flower girls, the Misses Margaret Henry and Charles Turner. Last in line came the bride with her mother, Mrs. Eugene Allen Tracy. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Walter C. Thompson of Hartford and a double ring ceremony took place in front of the altar trimmed with golden rods and hydrangeas.

The bride was prettily gowned in hand-made Belgium lace over silver-crepe, wore a train, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and orchids.

Mrs. C. H. Evans wore a gown of orange pussy willow satin and Miss Natalie Collier, sat in a gown of silver-crepe.

Following the service at the church an informal reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Tracy, parents of the bride, at which eighty guests were present.

The couple received many beautiful gifts, among which were silver, linen, cut glass, money, and gifts useful in the home. Mr. and Mrs. Everett are spending their honeymoon at the hotel where Mr. Everett holds a responsible position with the American Mills of that place. He is a graduate of Windham High school and for many years made this city his home.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrant.

What the U.S. Rubber Company has done for the Small Car Owner

PROGRESS in any industry is marked by certain well defined steps—each step a positive contribution to the well-being or economy of part or all of the people affected by the industry.

No more positive benefit with respect to a saving in time and money has ever been conferred on the small car owners of this country than the creation of the clincher type of tire.

A product of the foresight and experience of the United States Rubber Company—the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.

The United States Rubber Company has never assumed that because a man owned a small car he was necessarily lacking in a true appreciation of quality.

U.S. 30 x 3 1/2-inch tires are built as well and as carefully and as honestly as the largest size tires are built.

In a factory devoted exclusively to this size tire.

By workmen trained and skilled in the production of Clincher Tires.

Go to a legitimate dealer when you want a small

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Academy Examinations.
Those who did not pass their examinations for this Academy may have another chance next Monday and Tuesday at 9 a. m. See adv.

Strand Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Another big time program has been arranged to play at the Strand for the last half of the week. Billy Newkirk and the famous Fane Sisters will be seen in a full stage variety offering that has no equal. Waita and Hingold, the two funniest of the funny comedy entertainers, will be seen in a side-splitting monologue act that is a scream, entitled The Hushing Bride. McCarthy and Stewart, who are a man and woman, will also be seen in a full stage comedy entitled Twin Bed. Come and drive away the blues. For the special feature picture the Strand will show Emily Stevens, the brilliant stage star, at her best in a play with a well known cast, including Muriel Outridge, in a six-part feature entitled The Sacred Flame. This is a love story you will never forget. Rich in heart interest, its message carries to everyone from 16 to 60. A love story of wondrous pathos, vividly showing the inner workings of love itself. An up-to-date Select News will complete this big show for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Broad Theatre.

For today and tonight the Broad will present a double feature bill. Madeline Travers, well and most favorably known here as a William Fox star, will be seen in her new picture, The Iron Heart. This drama, written and directed by Dennis Clift, is described as one of the most thrilling photodramas in which Miss Travers has yet appeared. Life in a mill town and work in the big steel mills of the middle west are presented with careful attention to thrilling situations, rapid action and snappy climaxes. Deniece Clift, author and director, has created an entertainment in which every scene is a winner. The cast includes George McDowell, Edwin Booth Tilton, Melburn McDowell and Ben Deiby. Harry Carey will be shown in his latest photodrama, Human Stuff, directed by Reeves Eason, and supported by Mary Charleston, Ruth Fuller Golden, Fountain La Rue, Redie Christians, Joe Harris, Bobby Mack and a host of others.

Davis Theatre.

Edgar Lewis' newest picture, "Other Men's Shoes" is the feature attraction at the Davis theatre today. This Pathé feature presents Crauford Kent, the popular leading man, in the dual role of twin brothers. One is a preacher, sensitive and meek. The other is a wanderer, violent and unscrupulous. Circumstances force the strong brother to wear the shoes of the weak one. Things begin to happen in earnest in the community when their minister suddenly develops treacherous propensities that will be a surprise to the thousands at the fair. The second feature is Mary Miller in "Peggy Reback," a beautiful picture of a fair folk in 5 parts adapted from the story "The Maid of the Sails" and this is a beautiful story and one that you will enjoy seeing. Comedy, a new and distinct novelty completes the show.

Wild West Act at Fair.

A wild west act is coming to the country fair which is being held at the fair ground East Great Plain, next Monday, Labor day, for three days. This new feature, which will be one of the several free vaudeville numbers on the program, has been secured by the fair committee through the efforts of Secretary Gilbert S. Raymond. By name it is known as The Caribee, a cowboy and a cougar, and they will present their famous Australian stock and built-up manipulating and rope spinning act as their first number. Their second number will be expert lassoing, catching a running horse by the legs and also by the neck. During this event the riders make several fancy catches that will be sure to delight the thousands at the fair. Mr. Raymond also announced Wednesday evening that Eddie Connelly, the well known Norwich singer, will be on the program again this year. Mr. Connelly, who has a very pleasing voice, will sing with Tubbs' Military band between the races.

Among the latest who have entered exhibits for the fair are J. Lawrence Raymond of Hamden and C. A. Gagen Jr., of this city, who will show blooded Horses.

The Frisbie-McCormick company, Scripps-Booth and the Hudson-Escott company will have large automobile shows tented on the side.

A pay telephone, a parcel checking tent and an information booth located near the main entrance to the grounds will be provided for the accommodation of the fair patrons. A new building has been installed in the dining hall.

Manager Chase, the athletic director of the Ashland Athletic club, has submitted to Edward J. McKay his list of entries for the athletic events on Wednesday afternoon. Among those from this club who have been entered for the athletic events are N. Charlier, who won The Bulletin marathon on several years ago, Ed Harris, Harold Jeffers and Planstrom, all well known Jewett athletes. The Ashland relay team will be composed of the following men: Charlier Bros., Bill Quillier and Harold Jeffers. As there is no try-out race has been selected Jewett City's challenge.

The Taftville boys are practicing every night and their entrance will probably be announced Friday. The epee and medal are also on exhibition at Ferguson's jewelry store.

ANDOVER

There was a ball game Sunday afternoon between the Ashon and Andover ball team. The score was 5 and 2 in favor of the visiting team.

There was a play at the town hall on Tuesday night given by the Concord people. Quite a number attended.

L. H. Porter was in town Monday. Mrs. Porter still remains quite unwell. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery soon.

Jonathan B. Hunt, Jr., of Andover, and Miss Rebecca Dunham of Hartford were married Aug. 29. Rev. H. B. Goodell officiated.

W. T. Toot took a party consisting of Rev. and Mrs. Goodell, C. S. Bradley of Southport, Miss Lucy Bradley, Mrs. Deland Halsey of Bridgeport, and a number of other friends, Aug. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Kibbe were moved to the Case place a short while ago, left Wednesday for Millerton, N. Y., where he has purchased a place.
